“ From the very first day, I was captivated. Your confidence, directness, intelligence and unique style in every aspect just grasped my attention. We began a journey of friendship intertwined with our similarities and captured by our differences. We Became best friends above all things, a family and each others biggest cheerleaders. The Inspiration in each others world. learning each others true nature, being our true selves and becoming so comfortable within another. As with everything in life it wasn't easy nor a fairytale, but it's was real and we felt privileged and grateful to have each other when it meant the most. As you would say to me, “ It's not about the journey it's about the promise”. Forever And A Day Amor.

“ Hey Unc.....
They say everything happens for a reason, but I can't figure out the reason why you was taken way from us so soon!!! I came to the conclusion that the Lord was ready for you!!! I find myself waking up in the mornings and checking my messages hoping that there is one from you like always. Wishful thinking I guess. Unc you will definitely be missed, but you will never be forgotten❤️
 Love you
