“ Alana, Billy & I grew up in Vineyard Town back in the 1960's. We joined the CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) in our teen years and spent many years serving in the organization and at St. Theresa's Church. We participated in many activities while in the group to include a singing contest with the three of us. I think we came second in the contest to our delight. Alana was such a kind, gentle and out-going person, always smiling, hence the nickname dimples, (her dimples were so pronounced when she smiled). She would always volunteer for any project, always helpful and was a leader for the young people. She loved to bake and was very good at arts and craft, making gift baskets for any occasion. She was a true friend and Billy & I are so sorry we lost contact with her and her family through the years; to now learn of her death was saddening. May her Soul Rest In Peace. May the Good Lord comfort the family at this time and know that we will keep you all in our prayers. 🙏🕊️

“ Alana and I lived in Hampstead Park as teenagers in about 1969 upwards. Remember her brother, Ian, aka Jinx very well. We lost touch with each other for years but had spent some special moments growing up. Much Blessings and love to her family and may God strengthen them in this sad time and the days and years ahead. Rest well Alana. Your friend Rosie Powe from Sligo Road
