

Alice B. Scott

October 11, 1932 - January 11, 2020

Alice Barnett Scott was the youngest child born to the late Riley Barnett, Sr. and Eva Frances O'Bryant Barnett in Carrboro, North Carolina on October 11, 1932. Alice attended Orange County Training School in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Alice was the Valedictorian of her class in 1949.

At an early age, Alice developed passion for learning how to play the piano and became the pianist at Second Baptist Church in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. During her high school years, Alice played the trombone in the marching band.

In the 1950's, Alice moved to Pompano Beach and obtained employment at Florida Power and Light. Alice B. Barnett was the first African American to work at this location (Pompano Beach). Later on she obtained employment with Blanche Ely High School and worked in various positions prior to her retirement from the Broward County School System.

In the late 1950's, Alice met and married the love of her life Calvin James Scott. To this union they were blessed with five daughters. Alice B. Scott enjoyed singing and directing choirs. She loved teaching music and educational classes. She served in several ministries within the church and assisted many in the community.

Alice Barnett Scott was preceded in death by her husband: Calvin James Scott, Sr., a daughter: Hilda Rene Scott Worrie, two brothers: Arthur and Riley Barnett, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her daughters: Brenda McCall (Ron), Etta Scott, Angela Butler, Kimberly Mesfun; two stepdaughters: Dr. Helen Bryant, Gloria J. Cannon; one sister: Eva Barnett; eleven grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Just was told of the passing of Mother Scott on May 26, 2020. She is a true Christian and she is still alive in Christ Jesus. Mother Scott gave her all to her family. Now she has a peace that passes all understanding. She was the pillar and strength of her family.

“ To The Scott Family, sorry to learn off the Transitioning of Mother Alice Scott. I met her at Walmart in the mid 90tys; where she worked part time. She had such a LOVING Spirit. I lost contact when her position ended at Walmart. We reunited in 2012 at my Step Grandma's Funeral. Wherein Mother Scott played the Piano. Then I learned she Worship at Calvary with my Great Uncle and Family. Now tonight looking for a friends Homegoing Service and just like in 2012, I found Mrs. Scott but this time She has transitioned to be with our Lord.💔

“ Dear Scott Family,
I am so sorry to hear about the home going of your dear mother. I have known your mom my entire life. My siblings and I called her the other Mrs. Scott because our mom was a Mrs. Scott too. Your mom was a beautiful soul. There was nothing to large or small for her to do for anybody. She loved her family, Mt. Calvary and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Take comfort in knowing that you didn't lose your mother, she simply went on home to be with our Heavenly Father. We will see her again someday.

Sincerely yours,
The other Brenda Scott
