“Where did it begin, it is hard for me to remember, You have been a part of my life for so long. As a little girl you help to teach me how to clean up , stay away from boys and personal hygiene for a lady is "a Must". My First long trip away from home, away from my parents was with you to Jacksonville to meet Mama Sally (your grandmother, Mr. Waters, Nurse Mamma (your mother) and Jean, Lil baby, big baby (the twins) , Marvin, Edward, Ernest and Walter, all of your siblings who you just adored. As I got older you trained me to babysit the boys which I did for many years. You were my 5th grade teacher and you told on me when I wore Tunita Kit heel shoes to school. I should have known better , you told everything. You checked out all of my friends, all my boyfriends right up to 12th grade. You had to have a final talk with my husband before I got married. And you had to sit on the front row when I got married because you said "I am your parent too". You taught me as a little girl to love the Lord, love your Church and love your family and you were a living witness to that principal all the days of your life.

I love you dearest and I am going to miss you immensely but it was time for you to go and take your rest. I can only imagine, you and your friends, all in glory, not at the scrabble table (you , mom and Mrs. Williams played into the early hours of the morning)but at the Kings table, at the feet of Jesus, praising him for eternity. Receive your crown in authority, the crown of righteousness that has been prepared for you !

*Until we meet again,
Kay*

“ Mrs Edwards was my 5th grade teacher and I have the upmost respect for her. In those days teachers treated the children as their own. Teachers took control of their classroom and children didn't just do what they wanted to. Who remember the number 2 pencil and the rules? I remember them as being the get right tools. Thank you Mrs Edwards for keeping me in line .
