Arthur Dieujuste (Ke tout moun te konn rele Atue) was born in Saint – Louis – du Nord (Berger). On December 24, 1947, in Haiti his loving parents Veronique Petit Noel and Ovide Dieujuste. He attended Sacre Caire school, from his generation then the young person called it now Kay Jeamba, and pursued a career in becoming a tailor, a skill that would become an important factor in his life. In 1970, it was during his time sewing from a young age he left Haiti and made the life-changing decision to move to Nassau, Bahamas. In 1979, he traveled back and forth from Haiti to the Bahamas until he moved to the United States in 1983 for a more stable lifestyle that best suited him. Arthur was a man of resilience and strength. In 1995, he was always working tirelessly in various jobs to support himself and continue the life he has enjoyed so far. Arthur is a proud father of 12 children, 3 of whom he shared with Alisna Fenelis. Arthur lived a life full of love, strength, and kindness. He made a difference in the lives of so many people, always offering wisdom, support, and a warm heart. Though he's no longer here, his memory lives on in the stories we share and the love he gave. He may be gone, but he will never be forgotten. Rest easy, Arthur, you will always be missed.
