“ Before I got to Pembroke, I had some of the worst experiences with a roommate. I was nervous about having one when I got to Pembroke. However, you changed all of that Bree. You were such a great roommate where we became close friends! I appreciate you supporting me, being by my side through the tough times, staying in contact with me and just being a true I have so many memories with you, but what I will never forget is how you kept it real no matter what. Lol I mean you never sugarcoated a thing honey!! Thank you for showing me what a true friend actually is! I love you and I am going to miss you !

“ We offer our most sincere condolences. She will always be lovingly remembered. Her creativity and humor, her playfulness and loyalty, her beauty and generosity, her all-around big heart, and so very much more, will fill our hearts. We enjoyed many visits while living in the Towers when we were stationed in Okinawa. Playing jump rope in the hallways, exploring the playground, and talking for long hours, Bree was one of my closest childhood friends. She is forever loved. With deepest sympathies and prayers, Lyndah and The Lovell Family, Jo and Frederick.

“ My Bree Bree, Little did I know. But you have brought so much Joy and Happiness into my/ our lives. I thank God For the years he allowed us to share you with Him. They were Joyful and you were a Blessing. You slipped quietly away from us but you left us with beautiful memories to cherish the rest of our lives. Thank you so much for the Love we shared throughout the years. Now it's time to take your rest. Remember you did not go alone. God sent his Angels to carefully bring you home. We will never ever stop Loving you. Until we meet again My Baby Girl rest in the Arms of Jesus Christ
