“ Calvin has always been a big brother to me, I've been around him all my life. He was such a sweet person very humble looking at him, was like looking at Mom. He had the prettiest big smile. He was a great man. He may be gone, but he'll never be forgotten and he truly will be missed. 💔💔💔😭😭🙏🙏🙏

“ The most thing I remember about my brother, Calvin, is his smile would light up any room with that Russell smile. He was a very smart man, a hard worker always taking care of his family and he loved a great round of golf. I remember before he went to serve his country spending Christmas at their house when he put up swing set in the back yard. Mama and I would watch the news every night to see if we could catch a glimpse of him or to know what was going on in Vietnam. I remember Uncle Honey telling him about postal service. He always called me Lil Grace even I got grown and joined the Air Force. I remember Sunday dinners with him around Mama's table. He loved her cooking. I remember how much he loved Grandma Bea and Papa and times we spent on her front screened in porch and his laughter. I will miss him, his presence and his smile. Sleep on Army soldier and soldier of the Lord till that great getting up day. Rest peacefully.

Calvin always enjoy the company of others; especially the Russell siblings. The times I did visit he would always ask how's everybody, doing with a warm smile that followed . I am happy to have spent time with him on his last day before his transition. Calvin you received your total healing . Sleep on and take your rest . ❤️
