

Catherine Queen

September 26, 1942 - January 11, 2022

During the calm and peaceful morning of January 11, 2022 at 1:19 am, God dispatched his angel to escort her home.

Mother Catherine Rebecca Queen was born September 26, 1942 in Lake City, South Carolina, to the parents of the late James W Burroughs and Alma Shaw Burroughs.

She attended the Broward County school system in Pompano Beach, FL and continued her education at Atlantic Vocational School.

Catherine owned and operated Queen's Daycare.

On January 29, 1959, she met and married her only true love Felton M.

Queen Sr. From this union they had six beautiful children, three daughters, Anjanette, Stella, and Alma. Three sons, Felton Jr. (deceased), Eugene, and Albert.

Catherine became a member of The House of God, Which Is The Church of The Living God under the leadership of Bishop A.R. Holmes. Preceding his death she continued serving God under the leadership of Bishop Frank Green Sr. She was currently serving under the leadership of Bishop Frank Green Jr. She was president of the usher board for many years. She was later appointed one of the Mother's of the church. She was the Sunday School Department secretary. She sang on the Adult Choir. She was the head of the Pastor's Aide Committee.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving husband, Felton M Queen Sr. of 62 years, three daughters, Anjanette (David) Wells; Stella Taylor, and Alma

(Paul) Gardenhire; three sons, Felton, preceded her in death, (Cynthia) Queen, Eugene (Gloria) Queen, and Albert (Gloria) Queen; one sister Grace Burgess, one brother, James (Regina) Burroughs; two sister-in-laws, Jackie Griffin and Edna Queen; 30 grandchildren, three God-children, and a host of great-grands, nieces, nephews, and other sorrowing relatives and friends.
