

Charles Simon

February 3, 1945 - May 16, 2019

Charles Simon was born on February 3, 1945 in Quartier Morin, Haiti and was raised in Chaste Noir. At an early age he moved to Cape Haitian where he worked in the coffee industry with Raymond Nazon and Noivela. It was during this time he fathered his son Benito Simon. Shortly after he moved to Florida in 1981.

Charles life, he was loved life and loved friendly though a man of few words, and very respectful with an enormous heart.

In the early 90's he reacquainted with Jacques Saintil, who took him under his wings and led him to Christ. In 1996 Charles met and Married Julienne Joseph and gained a daughter Jessica.

Up until his final days, Charles remained a faithful Christian until his death. He remained strong, and upbeat, never uttering a single complaint until the day he died. He is survived by his son Benito Simon, his wife Mona Simon and children Yolanda, Erwins, and Bochina Simon. His daughter Jessica Michel. His Niece Julienne Bernadette Previl and dearest friends Aminite Seraphin and Jacques Saintil who supported him in his last moments

Deepest sympathies to all those affected by his passing. Friends and family both in Haiti and Florida. Deshomes, Derhancy, Joseph, Previl, Seraphin, Simon, and Zephyr.
