“ My Big Brother Is Gone

*You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he has lived.*

*You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all he's left.*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love you shared.*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.*

*You can remember him and only that he's gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.*

*You can cry and close your mind,
Be empty and turn your back*

*Or you can do what he'd want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

*RIP ... you will always in our hearts!
Love always Lil Sis Charmaine*

You were always my sweet loving big brother, who looked after me though only two years separated us. Although separated by miles, we remained close. I love you and will miss you dearly and pray that the Lord would keep you safe in his arms on your next journey into heaven. Love you always and I know you would forever be with me.

Colin is all I have ever called you my larger than life cousin. You just seemed to me that you were invincible. I loved you because you sat and listen to a little girl who talked incessantly and you were always interested in whatever nonsense I had to say.

I can still see your smile after all this time... the image of Grandad... It has been a long time but my heart still beats rapidly knowing you are lost to us here in this life... but never lost in our hearts.

*Bye Colin
Love you
Licia*

“ My earliest memories of Barbados include you - I'd never seen someone so much taller and bigger than little old me! I remember you for your sense of humour and your love of food and I am so sad to be saying goodbye to you.

One of the last conversations I had with Grandad was him telling me about when you were born. He was so proud that you had arrived - his first grandchild I believe!

*I didn't see you often but enough so that I will miss you terribly.
Goodbye cousin, rest well.*
