

Cora Lee Amerson

February 9, 1927 - June 27, 2020

Life's Reflections

Cora Lee Brown Amerson was the second of eight siblings born February 9, 1927 in Wadley, Georgia to the parentage of the late Roosevelt and Addie Lee Wilcher Brown, Cora Lee was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Mudies Amerson; five sons, Thomas, Mudies, Roosevelt, Jerry, and Jessie Amerson; one daughter Cathy Ann Amerson; one sister, Mary Lou Crispell; four brothers, Willie, Barbara aka Bobby, Pierce and Felton Brown all who preceded her in death.

A life well lived is a legacy, of Joy and Pride and Pleasure, a living, lasting memory that our grateful heart's will treasure. Cora Lee Amerson on June 27, 2020 quietly surrendered to the will of our Lord and Savior and joined her heavenly family. Her final days were spent surrounded by family and love ones that she touched throughout the 93 years of her memorable life.

At a very early age, Mother Cora Lee professed her faith in Christ. She loved the Lord and was a faithful member of The Greater Antioch Missionary Baptist Church where she sung in choir, served on the Usher Board and Mother's Board. She even traveled with the mimes, the City wide choir and church conventions.

Cora Lee opened her heart and her home too many, she has been a source of encouragement to all who have lived with her or crossed her path. Cora Amerson was Loving, Considerate, Nurturing, Thoughtful and Compassionate. Despite her large family Cora Lee always made time for everyone. She always provided support and love for her family. She worked tirelessly to provide opportunities for her Children. Mother Amerson worked as a Foster Grandparent at Charles Drew Elementary, work at a nursing Home, worked as a Housekeeper and even ran a Daycare at Antioch and at her home. Her heart and her generosity knew no bounds.

Left to carry on Cora Lee Amerson legacy and cherished memories are: her devoted sons; George and Allen Amerson daughter Ashley Amerson. one sister; Neloise Brown of Cortlandt Manor NY, one brother; Theartis Brown of Deerfield Beach, Florida, a devoted nephew; Sidney Crispell of Courtlandt Manor, New York and niece, Valarie Brown Smith of Chicago IL, God children; Candi and Nichelle aka Nikki Scott. Fond memories will continue to cherish in the lives of nineteen grandchildren, fifty-six great-grandchildren, and eight great-great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.

What a legacy it is to be remembered because of love. Now you are our guardian angel. You will always be loved, always be missed, and always be in our hearts.

“ My loving and dear Aunt Cora Lee

I miss you already, as our family remembers you and gives heartfelt thanks and love at your Homegoing service. Characteristics of strength, confidence, discipline, perseverance, empathy, forgiveness, compassion, and service are Christian values that you lived by daily. I will always remember your devoted, unconditional, and uncompromising love for our family. You have inspired and encouraged me to always be at my best.

When I reflect on our special relationship, I am only sad for a moment, and then there's joy, happiness, and laughter! I especially enjoyed your storytelling, highlighted by your sense of humor when you shared family life stories and situations about your childhood with my Mom and Uncle Willie. They were beautiful, memorable, and hilarious.

I will only say “ so long” because I plan to see YOU one day. Thanks for all the precious, everlasting memories and especially your love.

I love you!

*Your nephew,
Sidney Crispell*

“ Grandma Amerson... thank you for being such an essential part of my life growing up. I was one of the few your trusted with Ashley and Allen and I'm glad I got to share with you some great moments from traveling to Canada, going all over town with the mines and the specialist highlight for you sending Ashley off to Prom. I am truly gonna miss you. Thank You for shining your light my way. Love Gracie

“ We had a wonderful aunt,
One who never really grew old;
Her smile, her voice was sunshine,
And her heart was solid gold.

Aunts have no wands or wings,
So they work with wisdom, love and things.
Having taken on this role,
You loved me – You loved US
Right down to our very souls.

You are now at home with the ancestors
Thanks for your survival, strength & amen's
The promise is – if we only believe
We will see you again!

Love You Aunt Cora! Valerie

2 TIMOTHY 4:7 – 8

7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8 Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

*To the Amerson Family,
I cannot remember not knowing the Amerson Family. From the Daycare Sis. Amerson had in what is now Antioch's east parking lot to her only daughter Cathy Ann and I marching in the Pompano High School's band. Sis. was a devoted member of Antioch for more than 50 years. Always a sharp dresser, no task was too big or too small for her to do for her beloved Antioch and the Church Family. She was blessed with a long life that she lived well. I was blessed to know and love her. Another soldier gone on home to be with the Lord.*
