“ Sister Blue took really good care of my brother and I when we were kids. She always snuck us candy in church when the ushers weren't looking 😊. We cried when she moved to south Florida. I pray that God continues to bring comfort to her family and loved ones during this time.

“ My condolences to Cousin Cynt. I'll never forget calling my mom, Gladys, for help with my greens and she was on the phone with Cynt. She connected us all and Cynt just laughed and laughed because i couldn't fix them. Everytime she saw me she would ask, "Cynt are you greens still bitter?" Then she would fall out laughing. I'm going to miss her and that beautiful smile. Rest peacefully Cousin Cynt 🙏❤️

Cynthia was such a kind, and loving person, she called and visited me when I was in a nursing care facility. I know she loved me, & she knew I loved her. May she rest from all her labor. ☐💜❤

“ My sincere heartfelt sympathy to the entire family and friends of Cynthia. I remember your response each time I would call you it was a simple "Heyyyyyy Sis Wilson" and from there we would engage in conversation.that was usually about losing weight.
