To the Ward family. At time like this, it is hard to find words to say, but please know my thoughts and prayers are with you. I know it is very difficult to lose someone you love and I want you to know, you have my heartfelt understanding of the sorrow you are feeling today. We never part with those we love as they are with us always, in thought and spirit. Perhaps we'll feel a whisper or a touch on the shoulder to let us know that we never walk the path of life alone. Whenever we are at our lowest, they are there to comfort us, to remind us of our real purpose on this earth. I wanted to write something special to make you feel better, and to somehow help ease the pain of losing someone so close to your heart.
