

Darrell Smith

March 2, 1973 - August 22, 2021

Darrell Tyron Smith was born March 2, 1973 in Fort Lauderdale to Jennett P. Robinson-Smith and Willie James Smith. Darrell was raised in Pompano Beach, FL in a God fearing home. He was a member of Thomas Temple, COGIC under the leadership of his uncle the late Superintendent Robert L. Robinson, participating in Sunday School, Sunshine Band, and Choir #2. Darrell matriculated through Broward County Public Schools, graduating in 1991 from Blanche Ely High School in Pompano Beach, FL. Upon graduation, he enrolled at Bethune-Cookman University in Daytona Beach, FL where he played collegiate football. Following college, Darrell returned to South Florida and obtained employment with Atlantic Technical College in the agricultural department. Due to his work ethic and dedication, he was promoted to supervisor.

Darrell was a fun loving, kind hearted person that lived life to the fullest. There was never a dull moment when he entered the room. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, bringing joy to all those that encountered him. On the morning of August 22, 2021, Darrell entered into rest. Preceding him in death is his eldest brother, Jeffrey Lovett, Sr. and youngest sister Tina Smith-Butler. He leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved mother, Jennett P. Robinson-Smith; father, Willie James Smith; sons, Justin Smith and Rashad Smith; daughter, D'Marea Smith; granddaughter, Sevanna Smith; 6 brothers, Leonard Lovett, Etheridge Lovett, Rodney (Pamela) Lovett, Sr., Tim Lovett, Michael (Keturah) Smith, Sr., Mike Holton; a sister, Cynthia (Timothy) Wells; and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
