Love

Desi and Margaret joined hands in love on November 26, 1988. During these 33 years, Desi embodied the true meaning of love and support. He brought family and friends together with his delicious homecooked meals and would never let a friend stop by without having a "short one" with him or trying his famous pound cake. On his vacation time he would never miss a chance to go back home and spend time of laughter and joy with his sisters.

Holidays were always a time to look forward with him. He made each one of us feel like a family member from a Holiday movie.
