“ My mother, Roz Saperstein, lived in the apartment next door to Diane & Jay for many years, until she passed away at 87 in 2013. My wife Carole and I knew Diane and Jay even before we moved to Florida in 2003 to take care of our mothers. We will forever be indebted to Diane and Jay. They were always there; making sure that Roz was 'OK'. They truly loved her.

It's not possible to put into words the kind of caring and compassionate person that Diane was. My sister also passed away in 2013; a few weeks after my mother. She was only 60. She was just like Diane. I truly believe what Jay said in his eulogy... that God picks only the very best of us in order to help him to continue to do his work.

Diane, now that you are one of God's Angels may you continue to do what you were doing for SO many people here on earth in heaven for eternity! Amen

We will always love and miss you...
