

Pastor Doris Black Vance

December 20, 1926 - December 20, 2021

THE OBITUARY

Her Genesis

It was on a Monday, December 20, 1926, when the union of Christian parent's Superintendent Elder Boston Black and Nora Wilks Black were blessed with their fourth child, Doris Black in Sanderson, Florida. Doris received her former education where she attended The Old Dillard High School, a historic school formerly known as the Colored School, in Fort Lauderdale Fla.

At the age of thirteen she accepted the Lord Jesus Christ and was filled with the Holy Spirit at the House of God Ministry during a noon day service. Filled with excitement she continued to attend the services over the next week during the day and at night, at which point she was compelled to do the work of the ministry for the remainder of her Christian life.

She continued her service at Black's Memorial Temple Church of God in Christ, under the leadership of her father Superintendent Elder Boston Black.

In 1943, at the age of sixteen she met and soon married her husband of 52 years, the late Mr. Edward Vance. To that union was born one son, Melvyn Vance who preceded her in death in 2008.

A Woman of Virtue

Pastor Doris Vance aspired to be a virtuous woman. She strove to embody the Proverbs 31:10-31 verses. Her priority was God first, her family and the church.

With a servant's heart, her career involved working as a private duty assistant and serving many families. As a woman of virtue, being called and chosen, Pastor Doris Vance continued in Deliverance Ministry under the leadership of Pastor George Johnson at Jesus Supernatural Church of Deliverance, where she enjoyed playing the drums and using her gift of ministry as an anointed psalmist wherever she was called to sing and bring Great Joy.

With the ability to hear the voice of God, Pastor Vance was led to co-labor at The Revival Faith Ministries under the leadership of Apostle Janice L. Dillard in 1989 and was ordained as a Pastor in 1990.

Her passion was known every where she went as a powerful witness in song and deeds. Throughout her ministry, Pastor Vance led many souls to Christ with outreach through evangelism, singing and witnessing. It was her heart's desire to give everyone the gift of Life through the Lord Jesus Christ. Her passion to see soul's come to Christ never ceased and continued even to the day of her heavenly departure.

In every direction that Pastor Vance traveled she declared Proverbs 3:5-6. "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways, acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths."
