

Dorothy Fields

April 19, 1937 - January 10, 2022

Dorothy Fields was born on April 19, 1937 in Sylvania, Georgia to the late Henry and Jannie Reddick.

Dorothy was the youngest female of 8 siblings, who've all preceded her in death.

Dorothy's parents relocated the family to Pompano Beach when she was at the young age of 8 years old.

Dorothy gave her life to Christ at an early age at Bethel A.M.E Church in Pompano Beach.

Dorothy would go on to have two beautiful girls, Vera being the oldest, and Jean.

She also became a successful business owner, creating custom furniture at Dorothy's Upholstery for over 30 years.

Dorothy was the cornerstone of her family, and family was truly important to her.

Left to cherish her memory are her two children and a host of nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.

“ Dorothy was a sweet spirited person, always smiled and worked faithfully in her church wherever she was needed. I have such memories of her, when we laughed, or when we got in trouble. Thank you 🙏 Lord I could truly call her friend.
