“ Mr. Goodrum was my grandmother's landlord for about 30 years. She considered him family. I was cleaning up today and getting rid of old paperwork (she died in 2007) and came across paperwork with his name. I Googled to find he made his transition a few months ago. My condolences from the family of Ms. Tatum (4th Street duplex #2).

“ I miss my granddaddy who I call, "papa." There's a void without knowing I can pick up the phone and call you! I wish heaven had a phone!

“ I loved my dad, I am going to missed him calling just to say I love you. NOT many daughters get the opportunity to hear their fathers tell them he loves them. What a phenomenal father.

“ Deacon Goodrum was a Senior Deacon at his beloved Antioch Missionary Baptist Church. His favorite phrase was, "Tell the Lord Thank You". His signature song was, "Tell Me Where Will I Be When The First Trumpet Sounds". He loved God, Antioch, his family and growing beautiful collard greens. Deacon Goodrum has left a void that can not be filled and fond memories that will never be forgotten. Servant of God, Well Done.
