“ I met Ed in Pompano Beach when I ran a small camera store on Atlantic Blvd. When I moved to Colorado I started my own newspaper the Pueblo Ledger with his help. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. Peter Vaka

“ I still write you emails. I miss you so much I'm unbelievably sad. If you could only write me back, you would make me feel better.

“ Rumors of Ed's impending death were always exaggerated, so the sad news was shocking. Ed worked tirelessly for his family, his craft and the Yellowfeathers. He could argue several sides of any issue -- and make you agree with all of them. Whether he was taking on local government, transcribing a saxophone part or speaking adoringly of his wife, Karen, Ed gave it his all. Ann Carter, a friend
