

Eric Charles Lewis

May 27, 1962 - July 1, 2022

“Eric’s” Life Reflections

Receiving of the Crown

Eric Charles Lewis was born in Pompano Beach, FL on May 27, 1962, to the late Mattie Lewis and Henry L. Batten. He graduated from Ely High School in 1980 for whom he played football for during the years of 1976 – 1980; a sport Charles really – really-really loved football! His favorite NFL team was the Raiders.

After high school Charles tried his hands at a variant of occupations, one of the earliest ones was at North Broward Hospital where he worked as a cafeteria assistant and acquired the endearing nickname “Tiny”. He became a certified plumber and drove as a local driver for a while. He found his niche driving the big rigs – 18-wheeler tractor/trailer long distance which became his lasting career until his health would no longer allow. But he reminisces about it often telling stories about the wide-open spaces and their beauty and the wonderful discoveries he came across.

Charles was truly a shining star with a bright angel like spirit. He touched everyone who came about his way. And if you’ve been about his way you would attest that Charles is a friendly, kind, loving, caring soul. Always full of light and life – even in his worst of times and going throughs... during his most challenging, difficult times he maintained a positive attitude and outlook and an energetic spirit and would say, “oh, I’m good. It’s going to be alright – it is what it is”.

With all the things that can be said about Charles the most notable one of all is that he found The Lord – ‘for real’ as he said on May 18, 2022. He made a statement of declaration, and his goal was to go from church-to-church to testify of his God’s goodness, grace, and mercy to him. Little did Charles know, when Heavenly Father heard him say all that, He to His remembrance His word in Jeremiah 29:11. So, on July 1, 2022, Heavenly Father went into action and began working on a good plan for Charles that took him into the future and hope Charles anticipated.

Charles is truly blessed to have so many who genuinely love and care for him. He leaves to cherish his memory: wife Tundye Szabo, Father Henry Batten, (1) Brother Rodney Lewis (Betty), (2) Special Brothers Corinthian Hudson and Ronnie Fleming, (5) Sisters Beryl Lewis (Melvin), DeAnna Lewis-Chance, Andria Hardwick, Karen Turner, Pamela King, God Sister Kimberly Bozeman, (3) God Children Prashant, Litisha, and Kalon, (2) Uncles Caleb Folsom, Wallace Fleming, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and lifelong friends.

Special thanks to:

Pattie N., Ella and Walter M., Joanne W., Keith M., Bianca, Veronica, Ginger, Chad M., (nephew), Anthony J., Melinda, and Jontavious (nephew).

PSALMS 24:7-8

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates: and be ye lift, ye everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in. 8 Who is the King of Glory? The Lord strong and mighty, The Lord mighty in Battle.

My battle is over! Just made my final touch down!!

I’ve got the VICTORY!!!

TRIBUTE

We know that no matter what you will always be with us. When life separates us, we know it is only your soul saying goodbye to your body, but your spirit will be with us always. When we see a bird chirping on a nearby branch, we will know it is you singing to us. When a butterfly brushes gently by us so care freely we'll know it is you assuring us you are free from pain. When the gentle fragrance of a flower catches our attention, we will know it is you reminding us to appreciate the simple things in life. When the sunshine through our window awakens us, we will feel the warmth of your love. When we hear the rain pitter pater against our windowsill, we will hear your words of wisdom and will remember what you taught us so well, that without rain trees cannot grow, without rain flowers cannot bloom without life's challenges we cannot grow strong. When we look out to the sea we will think of your endless love for your family. When we think of mountains, their majesty and magnificence we will think of your strengths and your endurance to the end... we will always love you our brother Eric Charles Lewis

Love Always,

Your Brothers and Sisters

“ Fairwell my Neighbor, Pops "Mr. Eric Charles Lewis".. Such a Good hearted man & showed Lots of Loved to my Twin boys... God called him home while we're away & I didn't get to say good-bye, but He became more special to me after losing my dad last year... Thankful for the many talks we had about his life & life in general.. In April, God compelled me to be more intentional Talking to him about the Word of God & I obeyed... He was so receptive & so Appreciative.. We had the most deepest longest conversation to the point I had to take his picture because it touched me so. He happened to be coming back from dialysis that day, but yet he was so upbeat. He also stated he knew I was a True woman of God & could feel the spirit when I talked & brought tears to my eyes.. It gave me joy to hear He had officially given his life back to Lord a month later.. He'll be missed but won't have to suffer anymore in this world!!! Take your rest Pops & RIHP🙏

*With Love & Condolences to his wife & Family

Thank you for ministering The Word of God to my uncle. Despite his adversities in life, you're right, he did stay positive and upbeat. He is now in his glorified body, looking at us, and praying for us all to get the revelation he got so that we too can rest in the bosom of the Father while we wait to see each other again.

“ Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. John 14:27

“ What a beautiful spirit my Uncle Charles will always be. He coined the nickname "Florida Slim" for me when I was a kid. His light will shine in my heart until I see him again in the presence of Our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ; whom my Uncle Charles gave his life. The photo of him dressed in white is how I always want to remember him: as angel enlisted into the army of the Most High God. I don't mourn over his death, I celebrate his life. I celebrate his salvation. I celebrate his eternal estate -which art in heaven. I pray for those he left behind grieving, but I pray most of all they follow him as he followed Christ. Peace I leave with you.
