

Frank Spencer

July 24, 1930 - November 26, 2020

On July 24, 1930 in the city of Vidalia, Georgia, Frank C. Spencer was born, the 1st of two children to Hillis Spencer and Annie Pearl Walker.

He received his early education from J.D. Dickerson Elementary School, Vidalia, Georgia. He migrated to Pompano Beach early on and there he met the love of his life, Lillian Rolle. They were united in Holy matrimony on January 28, 1951 and to this union, seven children were born. He was the first black installer and repairman for Bell South, now AT&T, where he worked until his retirement, for 30 years.

Frank Spencer was a force to be reckoned with on the dance floor, on the pool table, on the fish creek and at the bowling alley. He loved church and would hit the floor and shed tears whenever he heard the old chant, "Yes Lord". He was preceded in death by his two sons, Osborne Keith Spencer and Charles Vonzell Spencer (Mary); He leaves to cherish his memories a loving and devoted wife, Lillian Spencer, six children, Dr. Queen McHenry (Willie, deceased), Yvonne Spencer Ricks (Charles), Betty Spencer Heck (George), Derrick Spencer (Gwen deceased), Tracy Spencer (Jenise) and Delton Spencer (Darsheika). He was blessed to have 30 grandchildren, a host of great and great-great grandchildren, one brother, Charles Spencer, who preceded him in death and a special niece, Janice Spencer and a special nephew, Reginald Spencer and a host of nieces, nephews, sorrowing relatives and friends.
