

Genius McArthur Dexter

September 27, 1967 - February 6, 2024

A Time to Be Born

Mr. Genius McArthur Dexter was born September 27, 1967, in Pompano Beach, Florida to the parents of Genius Dexter and Annie Pearl Thurston.

A Time for Learning

He attended Markham Elementary School and Pompano Beach High School. Mike was a very great student in MATH and would cause problems with other students who were trying to comprehend the problem. He also loved playing basketball and was a Dolphin Fan. Whenever the Dolphins played, he would say "win or lose I am still a Dolphin fan." The last game he said, "we will back next year stronger."

A Time to Rejoice

At an early age he obeyed the gospel and became a member of the 15th Street Church of Christ. During his early years he would serve around the communion table along with his other brothers. Many times, at home he and his siblings would go over the order of worship. One Sunday in Bible Study his teach Sis. Braggs left the room for a moment and Mike locked her outside the classroom.

A time of Remembrance

Mike enjoyed writing songs I tried to get him to record them, but he did not follow his dream. After some struggles in his life his health began to fail him, and he was never the same. He enjoyed playing dominos with his friend on 16th Ave. in the afternoons, he was also a member of the Senior Activity Center on MLK Blvd. where he would go into the recreation area to exercise.

A Time for Rest

However, on February 4, 2024, Mike had a wonderful time in worship service and on our way home with laughter he said to his mother " be safe I love you and I will call you later." He never called On February 6; the death Angel called him home.

A Time to Look Back
