“ MY Sister

August 15th I began a Tearful Celebration as my dear friend and sister passed into eternity. 41 years ago you walked into my life saying hi I'm Gloria. With a shy smile head slightly bowed you reached into my heart as we began a journey of friendship and sisterhood. Blood could not have made us closer. You reached out to my mother when I moved to Germany determined to stay connected in a time when there was no cell phone, you found a way. Reach out and touch took on a new meaning. One I will cherish for a lifetime. "Everybody can't be Gloria" she would say. You see she could listen to a situation and come up with a solution. Her shyness became her strength. Life was not easy for you but you made it seem simple. You gave, even when it hurt. We talked daily. Even when we didn't we seem to always fall into step. I can hear you now saying, "Hey Darlene! How you doing? What? What happened? Hm you know.... right? Man Man, TETE, they good! So smart! Moop child she working! TeAndre that boy he something special, the Twins boy they busy! Pretty babies! She would name them all. Monnie girl she growing up! Bro he good! Always thinking about family! Well I'm cooking me some!" She would cook and send pics! She loved to compete on her presentations! She loved to try new dishes! Always with I going to make this but mine will be better! Well I gotta go! Talk to you later! I look forward to eternity. I plan to see her again! My heart is comforted in knowing the plan of salvation offers this Reunion. Plan to see her again in eternity! We will be sitting around eating! Singing praises! "Don't cry for me! Don't shed a tear! My time with you will always be! Please carry on, don't cry for me!"

Love you my Sis, Cheeks, always Gloria.

- [] Love you always and forever.
