*To the McCray Family,
I was saddened to hear of the passing of your Matriarch Mrs. Hattie C. McCray. She was one of my teachers at Sanders Park Elementary School. She was a caring and inspirational teacher but she did not play. We all left her classroom better students than when we arrived. May God Bless your family for sharing this wonderful woman with hundreds of students during her long career. She really made a difference in our lives.*

“ Aunt Hattie was my angel here on earth. She helped raise me and when she was 14 years old she walked and carried me to the doctors office on more then one occasion. Aunt Hattie was a true and Faithful woman, mother and friend to all. Aunt Hattie was my second Mother, she helped guide me through life when I needed support. The one thing that I cherished more was her love and support that never wavered. She will always be in my book of Heroes as a strong Black Woman that never backed down from anything or anyone. May God Bless you Aunt Hattie and Love you always.
