MARILYN JOSEPH DAVIS - February 09, 2017 at 08:07 AM

“ I didn't get to spend much time with Herbert but the time I did spend with him over the last few months were amusing to say the least. He welcomed me with open arms to his family. On our last visit we ate dinner with him and he was able to enjoy time with his granddaughter Keydeshai and his son Vernice Scippio. I had not seen him smile more than I did that day. We left him in good spirits and he even gave me a hug and told me to continue taking care of his son and granddaughter and that he would see us next week. Next week didn't come but I pray for the entire family at this time and I hope he knows that I will stand by my word when I said I would take care of his son and granddaughter the way he asked me to. RIP Herbert...
