Obituary

Herman Salter was born on January 8, 1934 in Evergreen, Alabama, to the late Jesse and Iona Robinson Salter. He was educated in the public schools of Evergreen, and later relocated to Pompano Beach FL with his family.

Herman worked as a plasterer for over fifty years. He was a responsible and hard working man, who believed in family and took care of them.

In April 1991, Herman married Catherine (Kate) Williams Salter, and the two enjoyed a beautiful life together until his demise.

He was a member of the Deerfield Beach Church of Christ where he faithfully and cheerfully served until his health began to decline.

Herman was a very quiet man with a humble spirit, beautiful smile and a big heart to help anyone he could.

On Tuesday, September 13, 2016, Herman answered his call from labor to reward.

Those who preceded him in death are: Son, Leotus Salter; Siblings, Tommie Salter, Cora Salter Kyles, Jesse Salter, Jr., John David Salter, Lula Kyles, Lucyneal Salter and Henry Salter.

Those left to cherish his memory are: a devoted and loving wife, Catherine (Kate) Williams Salter; Children, Tereatha Allen, Carlton Salter, and Candice (Maurice) Pollock; Daughter-in-Law, Marva Salter; 36 Grandchildren, 16 Great Grandchildren, Special Granddaughter, Lateshia Teka Darby; Sisters, Lola Kyles, Mattie Irving and Gladiola Harris; Sisters-in-Law, Joanne Battle, Shirley Jones, Lynda Battle, Francis Godfrey, and Priginia (Willie) Johnson; Brothers-in-Law, Frank Benny (Lois) Johnson and Detroit Griffin; Godchildren, Angela Farrington, Denila Hicks and Donald Farrington; Special Friends. Fred and Dorothy Mosley; Special Neighbors on 10th Street in Pompano Beach, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
