

James Anthony Williams

March 10, 1960 - July 28, 2020

James Anthony Williams affectionately known as “Tony” was born in Pensacola, FL on March 10, 1960 to the parents of Henry Lee Moorer (Sharon) and Betty Ann Carpenter (Ronald), who preceded his death. Early in life, Tony attended Warrington Elementary and Warrington Middle School in Pensacola, FL. He went on to graduate from Pine Forest High School in Pensacola, FL where he was a star football player. He has always lived a structured and disciplined life with a heart to serve, therefore, joining the Navy right after high school was natural. After retiring from the Navy, Tony settled in Broward County and Port Saint Lucie, Florida.

Once he was settled, Tony joined Port Saint Lucie Bowling League, this was his passion along with singing. Tony would sing his heart out anytime and anyplace. Yet, his favorite was singing the gospel in the House of God. Tony sang in the choir at Spirit of Life Missionary Baptist Church of Pompano Beach, FL. His talent was so great, that he even once produced his own successful record.

On the calm Tuesday afternoon of July 28, 2020, Tony entered his eternal resting place as God whispered in his ear “take your rest, my good and faithful servant.”

Though he will be deeply missed, he leaves sweet memories to be cherished by: father Henry Lee Moorer (Sharon); a loving fiancée Linda Scott; seven brothers Lawrence Carpenter (Yolanda “Peaches”) and Victor Williams of Buffalo, New York, Shannon H. Moorer (Patricia), Rico T. Moorer, Darryl Moorer, Desmon Moorer, Doentrae Moorer of Pensacola, FL; two sisters Dinesha L. Moorer of Pensacola, FL and Stacey Carpenter (deceased) of Buffalo, New York; three daughters in love Amanda Scott, Tressie and Iman Davis of Pompano Beach, FL; ten nieces Larrica Moorer and Kiara Moorer of Pensacola, FL, Layla, Taylor, Alexis, London, Alayia Carpenter, Nicole Williams, Lauren Smith, and Payton Smith of Buffalo, New York; two god-daughters Tamara Brown and Danae Dixon; a best friend "Shortman" of Pompano Beach and a host of extended family and friends.
