

Janis LaNette Irving

July 11, 1948 - November 14, 2023

Janis LaNette Irving was born on July 11, 1948, to Rosie Mae and Clarence Johnson. She is from the great state of Texas and was born in Marshall. She graduated from H.B. Pemberton High School.

She went on to get a bachelor's degree from East Texas Baptist College (University) and later a Master of Social Work (M.S.W.) from Louisiana State University. She was a kind loving woman. She was active in the church and served in many different offices including Sabbath School superintendent and head deaconess. She also was the South Florida Youth Federation president. She worked as a social worker in many capacities for over 30 years before her retirement. On February 4, 1973, she married John L. Irving, Jr. of Pompano Beach, Florida. She remained married for over 50 years until her passing. She is survived by her husband, John L. Irving, Jr., her two sons, Jonathan and Jason, her daughter-in-law, and two grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother, Charles Johnson, her sister, Barbara Ann Brown, and many other loving relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents and her sister Ruby Jean Edwards.
