

Jean Louis Michaud

May 24, 1942 - October 23, 2023

In 1970 Jean L. Michaud migrated to the Bahamas from Haiti. He lived in the Bahamas for some years until his departure in 1976 to the United States. Jean was then reunited with the love of his life Marie A. Innocent. In hopes to have a better life and/or dream, Jean and Marie started a family and had 4 kids: James, Jutaine, Nadege and Frantz. No one could separate those two Jean L. Michaud was a dedicated, hardworking, and humble father. He was the type to be in his own world stress and drama free. When Jean would get off from work his meal was prepared for him to eat, he would take a bath and get dressed. He would get in his car and enjoy his ride off to wherever his destination was. When you see Jean, he would always have a smile. He was a very respected man loved by his kids, grandchildren and others. Jean L. Michaud was a very biblical person. The faith he had in God was like no other. He would wake up, read his bible, before he leaves home he would pray, and most importantly he carried his bible everywhere he went. He had his personal relationship with God and put him first.

“ Daddy, I miss you soooo much 😭 i remember you telling me i don't need to cry when you were in the hospital. I couldn't stop cause you were in pain. My heart is broken 💔 now that you are gone. You always taught us that no matter what we are going through, we pray and put

God first 🙏 my father would say how thankful he was to have his children support him while he was sick. No matter what no one said about OUR FATHER, he was always there for us when we were children and as adults. The last moments of you will forever be in my memories 😞

I will always love you 🧡
