Letter to my brother: You were the strongest and smartest person I knew. You have been through things in your life that I know I wouldn't have been able to make it through. Every day I watched you tackle life. You fought long and hard. You were a soldier. Life threw obstacles your way and you always came out on top of them. My personal superman. Anytime I wanted or needed anything I could count on you to save the day. I'm willing to bet anyone reading this will say the same! Your personality lit up every room you entered. You left a mark on every person you met. You are my cousin by blood but both of us were raised as siblings because we both were our mothers only child. I couldn't have asked for a better big brother. I'm truly going to be lost without you. I feel like my world has been rocked and I still haven't grasped the fact that I won't get to see you every day. I'm going to miss watching our favorite shows and movies together. Who else will I watch Housewives of Atlanta with? You know Porsche is our girl. I have never met another person like you and there will never be another person like you! You meant the world to me and I will always love you. You are a part of me. I prayed for you every night and I will continue to pray for you. I hope you are at peace and is happy. I feel so incomplete without you my soul feels crushed, but I know you will watch over me. I was so proud of you and always bragged on you. I will continue to make you proud and accomplish all the things I told you I would. I know you loved me more than life itself, but you are with your mom now and together you too will give heaven a run for its money! Thanks for everything you taught me. Thanks for always doing for me and putting up with the spoiled brat you help create. I won't say bye because you will never leave me, I know you will always be there just like you have always been there! I will miss you more than you will ever imagine. Until I see you again, I love you big head! Hug Aunt Bev, Tee and Wooda for me!

- Kiara
