“ Jeffrey, now that we have laid you to sleep in peace, healing from this loss is very hard. I miss seeing you in your bed watching tv, I miss hearing you ask mama " is school tomorrow". I have visited you often since August 15, to let you know I am still here with you. I know that you are no longer in pain, even though you never complained that you were we knew. May you sleep in peace my brother. I will always love and miss you. You will never ever be forgotten.

“ Jeffrey,
Thank you for being a bright light for me. I remember having so much fun hanging out with Joanye and playing chase with you. As an educator, It's because of you that I'm constantly advocating for children. I'm blessed to have had you in my life. I'm sending prayers and love to the Newsome family.

Jeff what a pleasure to have you as a cousin. You were an inspiration to us all and you will most certainly be missed at the family reunions and other social events the family had. Your fight and determination throughout it all inspired me to overlook my little aches and pain and keep going. Thanks Jeff for the memories and sleep on until the call comes from Jesus for the grave to release the dead. I live and believe in the hope found found at Revelations 21: 4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

“ To my dear brother, Jeff: no words can express my loss, not only were you my big brother, but you were an inspiration. Throughout your entire life, you would not let your handicap deny you life, laughs, love, and good spirits. You embraced friends and family with a smile and humor.

You were fortunate enough to free from selfishness, greed, hate, or deception. You were a ray of light in a sometimes dark and cruel world, and for that I thank you.

I will indeed miss you Jeff, but I will not miss your spirit. You were a fighter and a survivor, defying all the odds and obstacles placed in front of you. You defied illnesses, Doctors, and anyone who said "you won't make it"! Your strength, I will forever carry with me.

Goodbye, my brother, my friend....my inspiration! Love,
Always....Kerry Newsome
