

Jessie Lee Wilcher, Sr.

October 3, 1945 - September 23, 2022

Obituary

Mr. Jessie Lee Wilcher Sr began his life journey on October 3, 1945, in Soperton, GA to the late Willie and Sallie Wilcher. Jessie was the 5th child out of 9 children. Willie C Wilcher, Anna Baker, Lois Jenkins, Charlie Wilcher, Sallie Ervin, Ruby Nell Lewis, Johnnie Wilcher, and Carolyn Wilcher; whom all preceded him in death. Jessie Wilcher accepted Christ at an early age, and was a proud member of Antioch Baptist Church.

Life's journey led Jessie Wilcher to Pompano Beach, FL where he met his wife Shirley Jean Williams. They were united in holy matrimony on May 8, 1970. Jessie Wilcher served in the US Army as a sergeant, where he was awarded the Purple Heart for his dedicated service. Jessie Wilcher found pleasure in working for Meals on Wheels, Poitier Funeral Home, spending quality time with family, and telling stories about the US Army.

Jessie quietly answered the Master's call home for eternal rest on September 23, 2022. He will be deeply missed and leaves to cherish his lovely wife Shirley Wilcher, his 3 sons Jessie Wilcher Jr.(Shawanna), Eric Wilcher, Bryan Wilcher and a special niece Sharon Wilcher, whom he raised as his own daughter. As well as his 8 grandchildren Trickia Wilcher, Tavoris Wilcher, Nakia Wilcher, Nakeriya Wilcher, Bryan Wilcher Jr, Bryton Wilcher, Brianna Prewitt, and Vashinella Jones; whom he raised as his own. Jessie had 9 great grandchildren, and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Although, Jessie's physical presence is no longer with us, his love for his family and his spirit has impacted all those who have known him.
