January 5, 1948 - December 6, 2018

Jewel King Singletary

“I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith. Henceforth is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me that day.”

II Timothy 4:7-8

Jewel King Singletary was born on January 5, 1948, in Pompano Beach, Florida to the parentage of the late Charlie and Rachel King.

Jewel was reared in the city of Pompano Beach, Florida where she attended grade school at Pompano Project and Coleman Elementary Schools. She then attended high school at Blanche Ely and was a very PROUD graduate of the Blanche Ely High School Class of 1966. She bled orange and green! A dedicated “Tiger” was she. Jewel was a supporter of the community and loved being an involved parent of Little League Sports, especially, the Pompano Chiefs Football League! Jewel later became a dedicated Band Parent of the Ely High School Marching 100 Tigers (1991-1995). In addition to Jewel being a devoted Band Parent, she was also an avid sports fan. She remained loyal to the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Hurricanes season after season.

At an early age, Jewel joined and was a member of Macedonia Baptist Church. She later became a faithful and dedicated member of Abyssinian Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Terrance Kearney until her demise. She loved working with the children at church.

Jewel was a hard worker and demonstrated her strong work ethic by devoting twenty-five years of service to Lundy Electronics and fifteen years to Publix. Finally, after forty years of service, Jewel decided to retire in 2013.

Jewel lived her life as a virtuous woman. She was proud and supportive of her family and always encouraged everyone to be their best and seek higher dreams. Jewel was a very generous giver and believed in sharing her resources to anyone in need. She always gave a hearty smile and warm welcome to everyone in her presence.

Jewel was always committed to family, especially her children: Terrence, Stephen, Charles, Chancey and her beautiful grandchildren: Sylance, Rachel and Kailin.

Jewel departed this life's journey and earned her wings on December 6, 2018 at 2:02pm at Holy Cross Hospital surrounded by loved ones as she took flight to Glory.

Jewel memories and legacy will forever be cherished by her loving children: sons, Terrence Singletary, Stephen Singletary, and Charles (Cheryl)

Robinson: daughter, Chancey Singletary: grandchildren, Sylance Singletary, Rachel Olige and Kailin Olige: brothers, Alonzo (Nezby) King, Ernest "Toby" King, Darian "Fleabo" King, Charlie King, Bernard (Sophia) King, Alvin King, Chris King, Curtis King Gary King, and Eric King: sisters, Karon King, Paula King, Sabrina King, Charlie Mae King and sister - in - law, Vivian King; Aunt, Grace Poitier of Tampa, Florida; thirty-nine nieces and thirty nephews, a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins, relatives and friends: one loving cousin Mother Sarah Ward: three special BFF's, Dr. Sue Johnson, Josephine Jackson and Kathy Lewis.

Jewel departed this life with fond memories of her brothers and sisters who preceded her in death: brothers, Thomas King, Freeman King, Esq. and Clarence King: sisters, Katherine King, Evelyn King, Shirley King and Sharon King.

Jewel loved and lived with honesty and integrity through her endeavors.

Amen! So be it!! It is so!!!

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of right- eousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
