

Jimmie Lee Harris

January 15, 1953 - October 13, 2022

Jimmie Lee Harris was born on January 15, 1953 to the late Dora B. Wilkins-Green and the late Robert Lee Harris in Twin City, Georgia. He was the oldest of five children. Of these, one named Clifford Randolph Green preceded him in death. He grew up in Dania Beach, Florida and was affectionately known by family and friends as "Bull" and "Cisco".

He was educated in the Broward County Public School System. While in school he loved all sports and was a standout athlete in football and basketball. He worked during high school and was introduced to the culinary arts. As a young adult Jim fostered a love for cooking. He worked in several local restaurants. Because of his dedication and strong work ethics he was elevated from a dishwasher to a prep cook, line cook and eventually he became the Head Chef at Williamson Restaurant in Fort Lauderdale.

When the company/restaurant relocated, the owner (the late Joseph Williamson) offered Jim a position in their restaurants in Pennsylvania with a guarantee that he would always have a job. He worked at Williamson Restaurant for over 40 years as the Head Chef until he retired. While working at the Williamson Restaurant in Pennsylvania, Jim met the love of his life, Sheila Raiford. They married and spent many happy years together until her death. He was an avid sports fan who loved the Miami Dolphins, the Philadelphia Eagles, Miami Heat, and the Philadelphia 76ers. Jim was a kind loving son, husband, father, grandfather, brother, relative and friend.

On October 13, 2022, he was called home to be with our Lord and Savior. He leaves behind many to cherish his memories. A son, Tony B. Harris (Stacy) and four grandchildren. Three siblings, Billie R. Green (Paula), Sharon Holcombe (Earnest) and Michael A. Green. Several aunts and uncles, Mildred Willis (Edward), Alfred Burroughs, Delia Lightbourne, Lily Ann Conner, Lily Ruth Daniels and Deline Wilkins. An honorary brother, Jerome Watson, a dear neighbor and great friend, Baxter Richardson. And a host of nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

“ *To my Uncle Jim,
Thank you for being such a shining beacon of light in this world. Your kind words, your beautiful smile and your infectious laugh will forever be remembered and tremendously missed. You are back home now with the Lord and I truly believe that your heart and soul can finally be at peace now that you are back with your one true love, Aunt Sheila. You will always be loved and will not ever be forgotten. Thank you for all of the beautiful memories, all of the great advice that you've given me and the unconditional love that you have given to each and every one of us. I will forever love you and cherish all of the beautiful memories together.*

Your Niece, Stephanie

“ Jimmy was my next door neighbor for more than 30yrs. During that time Jimmy became family to me. A brother that always had a smile for you. He was a great chef. I would often ask him Jim how do you make that salmon. Of course he would share but somehow it never tasted as good as his He was just a great guy with a heart of gold. Although he has passed on his memories that smile, that heart that was open & giving will remain treasurers in my heart. Rest on my dear extended family member our love for you will remain forever in our hearts.
