

John Roger Johnson

May 22, 1933 - July 26, 2023

Obituary

John Roger Johnson was born to the Late John Roger Johnson and Rosa Bell on May 22, 1933, in Statesboro, Georgia. He was parented by the Late Rosa and Paul McDaniel all of whom preceded him in death. At a young age he worked the cotton fields eventually working his way down to South Florida. He was educated in Broward County Schools attending Coleman Elementary, and both Ely and Dillard High Schools. Thereafter, he was drafted in the United States Navy. He was a member of Mt. Calvary Baptist Church Pompano Beach, Florida and was an active Sunday School Scholar. When his health began to fail, he attended Vanessa Wright Int'l Ministry services via Zoom.

In January 1954 he united in marriage to Rosa Williams, together they raised four children in the city of Pompano Beach, Florida. John affectionately known to all as J.R., began his career in the upholstery business, working for Pompano Trim Shop until he retired. J.R. was a beloved family member and friend to all who knew him. Always willing to lend a hand and a word of encouragement. He gave commitment and service to God, family, country, and community with a pure heart.

On the afternoon of July 26, our Heavenly Father called J.R. from labor to rest. He leaves to celebrate his life and mourn his death his beloved wife of 69 years Rosa Williams Johnson, four children Roslyn Thomas (James), Pompano Beach; Charles Johnson (Carol) Fort Lauderdale; Vanessa Wright

(Raymond), Port St. Lucie and Terrance Johnson (Pompano Beach, Florida); 16 grandchildren one of whom preceded him in death; 31 great grandchildren one of whom preceded him in death; and 3 great-great grandchildren; sister Kella Stanley (John), Miami, FL; Goddaughter Kaye Dickens, Port St. Lucie; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Bubba and Tweet:

Our hearts go out to you at this difficult time. What a blessing to live 90 years! Mr. Johnson was so good to my brother and treated him like a son, not a son in law. In his final days you both took such good care of him...Job well done! Now it is time to release him and let Him take his final rest. Day by day you will let go of the loss, but you never have to let go of the love. We are praying for comfort and peace in the coming days and may the Lord, Our great comforter, give you all the strength you need.
