A Glimpse Of

John Willie Williams

Life

“I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth here is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, when the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day” II Timothy 4:7-8

Mr. John Williams Jr. was the oldest son born to Moenia and John Williams, Sr. in Pompano Beach, Florida on July 28, 1946. His parents and a sister, Winifred Joseph preceded him in death.

He attended the Broward County Schools and graduated from Blanche Ely High School in the class of 1966 where he was a line backer on the mighty TIGERS football team.

After graduation, John entered the United States Arm Forces and fought in the Vietnam War. During his tour of duty there, he was wounded and received an honorable discharge. Among the many awards and medals he received for his service were the National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal w/device 1960, Purple Heart, Combat Infantryman's badge, and The Marksman (Rifle).

John received Christ in his life at an early age and united with the Church of Christ. After his health begin to fail, he was not able to attend church as he would like to. Therefore, he made sure that he continued to get the Word by listening to the TV, Radio, VCR, and his Headset, 24/7. John loved the Lord and the Lord Loved John.

John would have us to know, “Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has for me. I took His hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all.” Those left to cherish his precious moments are his three sons, Kavron , Emmanuel (Alice), John III (Annetrin): four brothers, Bobby(Iola), Jimmie, Winnon, Leroy Jr.: two sisters, Harriett, Gonnie: two uncles, Robert , Sammie Lee(Betty) :two aunts, Inez walker, Sarah Lou Hayward: nine grands, Chrishalon, Emmanuel, Jawon, Javon, Malik, Imani, Brea, John IV, Jaceyoung : a very special friend, Amy Fogie; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Please don't say that I gave up, just say I gave in.

Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.

Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.

Just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could, not to do less.

Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.

I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.

Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God I've made it home.

Don't just remember good times, but remember some bad.

For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad, but if you must do something then I have one last request.

Forgive me the wrong I've done and with the love that's left,

Thank God for my soul's resting. Thank God for I've been blessed

Thank God for all who loved me. Praise God who loved me best.
