“ If I were to write a book of my life with you as my father the title would definitely be life with superman words can't express how grateful I am that the Lord bless me to be your daughter. I remember when we first found out i was pregnant I was only fifteen omg I was so scared and embarrassed but you ensured me that it was o.k. and still treated me as your baby girl must u add I gave birth to two more after that and you took control and raised them as your own, When it came to you it was nothing we wanted for! Oh daddy remember I stole you car and you set me up and left the emergency brakes up lol still I did no wrong in your eyes we only laughed about it. I can go on and on but I'm gone end it with the day the Lord called you home I still hear your voice, You said sha sha I don't want to hear that crying I'm waiting, Come on and being the strong man that you are you waited and I made it. The smile you gave me when i whispered in your ear was the most precious moment in my life. I love you daddy reast on love your baby girl Shateria
