Julia was a special kind of friend. Julia we've had so many good times together. You owe a piece of my heart. Thanks to your 70th birthday party, I finally learned how to make good collards 🤔. I met you thru my sister Juliet while you worked at the post office. We quickly became best friends. We sang together in a group we created "Faith, Hope & Charity", we partied together, we laughed together. Now you are gone, but I promise never forgotten. You had a smile and a laugh that was infectious. What a wonderful world you made for anyone that entered your world. Tommie, you were Julia's whole world, her greatest accomplishment. Julia beamed when she mentioned your name. Hold that memory and all that love close to your heart. She didn't leave you, she just went away for a while. My God, I will truly miss my dear friend, Julia Johnson. She might have died, but my love for her lives on forever.
