

Karen Uneda Glasper

June 7, 1957 - December 12, 2018

Karen Glasper was born June 7, 1959 in Pompano, Florida to the late Allen Glasper and Mary Williams.

Karen attended Blanche Ely High School where she graduated in the class of 1977. While attending, she participated in Ballet, Tap, and Cheerleading.

Karen met the love of her life of 28 years, the late Jimmie Elvine. To this union they had 3 children.

At an early age Karen joined Antioch Missionary Baptist Church in Pompano, Florida where she confessed Jesus Christ as her lord and savior.

Karen worked for the Women's Department of Corrections in the city of Pompano, Florida.

On December 12, 2018 in Greenville, South Carolina, God called our beloved Karen home.

Karen leaves to cherish loving memories. Children: Karron (Tiffany), Kentrell (Danyell), and Da'landa. Brothers: Allen Glasper, David Williams, and Kevin Williams (Pamela). Grandchildren: Kentrell Jr., Milton, Karron Jr., Kanann and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.
