

Kerlene Civil

June 14, 1981 - August 20, 2020

Kerlene Civil was born on June 14, 1981 to the parentage of Jean Baptiste Civil and Madeleine Moimeme in Bombardopolis, Haiti. Kerlene was affectionately known as Keke by her friends and family. Kerlene came to America in 1991 to be with her father and stepmother Zuilite “MaJohn” who helped raise her and loved her as her own; and she attended Crystal Lake Middle School. Kerlene would go on to graduate from Blanche Ely High School in 1999.

Kerlene was a loving person and enjoyed spending quality time with her family and friends. She met her husband, Giordany, while working on the turnpike to pay for her college classes at Broward Community College. Their love gave them three amazing children, Dalyla Alcinor born on March 22, 2005, Gabrielle Alcinor born on January 26, 2007 and Giordany Alcinor, Jr. born on March 4, 2013. Her children were her greatest gifts in life and she loved them beyond words.

Kerlene would have loved to live into old age but God had another plan for her. On August 20, 2020 at approximately 4:00AM God called upon his angelic choir to sing her name and welcome her home where we are certain MaJohn was waiting to embrace her once again. Kerlene was a gem and will be missed forever. She leaves behind to mourn her memories:

Her husband: Giordany Sr.

Her children: Dalyla, Gabrielle, Giordany Jr.

Her mother: Madieulene Moimem

Her siblings: Johnson Sr (Tara), Wilco Sr (Lauzentina), Daniel Sr, Wilnise (Elmau) Nieces and nephews: Zi'Yale Civil, Zorion Civil, Wilco Civil Jr., Wayde Civil, Janay Civil, Jada Civil, Johnson Civil, Jr., Zara Thompson, Jeremiah Civil, Breyanna Civil, Daniel Civil Jr., Jabari Civil, Senora Jadotte, Makhy Laforete, Marven Laforete, Shesleigh Laforte

Special friends: Wisenie, Kenya and Karlene

Kerlene had two loving friends who stuck by her side in an EXCEPTIONAL way throughout her illness and it would be robbery to not say a special thank you to Delcina Destine and Sonya Florence. These two women took their time out to spend time and make Kerlene experience genuine friendship until her passing.

Kerlene is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives and friends.

“ To Bonnie and children, my deepest condolences. Kerlene will be truly missed. Words can not describe how I feel as me and Kerlene worked together since training and lived as neighbors. I will miss visiting her on my trips back home and being greeted with her smile no matter how long I've been away. My heart and love goes you to you and family.

My dearest sister-in-law Kerlene,

You were, you are and you will always be, an endearing sister-in-law, a being filled with love, tenderness and goodness, who knew how to conquer the heart of my brother, of all your children and of ourselves in particular.

A few weeks ago, we came to your house with my husband to visit you and you managed, despite all your suffering, to smile at us and even to offer us to sit with a roof over our heads.

This sad Thursday, August 20, 2020, you took the road, for a journey that takes you to the light, to homes where there is no more suffering or sadness. You just took leave of us, for a while, simply saying goodbye.

It is of course a great sorrow to see you go, but the faith of seeing you again brings us comfort and consolation.

Life here on earth may die and then disappear, but the love we all carry in our hearts for you will never disappear. Now you are certainly absent in body, but you remain present in our minds and alive with our God.

We don't want to cry but just to remember how deep and beautiful the moments we have spent with you have been. To soften the emptiness of your absence, we cling to those wonderful memories of your time with us. They will remain engraved in our hearts as examples of the love and generosity that moves us to be like you.

Thank you our dearest Kerlene for the happiness and love you shared with my brother and his children, including your family, during all these beautiful years.

Chimène Alcinor and Arcange offer their deepest condolences to all your family.

In French

Ma très chère belle-sœur Kerlene,

Tu étais, tu es et tu seras pour toujours, une belle-sœur attachante, un être rempli d'amour, de tendresse et de bonté, qui a su conquérir le cœur de mon frère, de tous vos enfants et de nous-même en particulier.

Il y a quelques semaines, nous étions venus chez toi avec mon mari pour te rendre visite et tu as réussi, malgré toutes tes souffrances, à nous sourire et même de nous proposer de nous assoir avec toi à l'intérieur.

Ce triste jeudi 20 août 2020, tu as pris le chemin, pour un voyage qui t'emmène vers la lumière, vers des demeures où il n'y a plus de souffrance ni de tristesse. Tu as juste pris congé de nous, pour quelques temps, en nous disant simplement au revoir.

C'est bien sûr une grande peine de t'avoir vu partir, mais la foi de te revoir nous apporte le réconfort et la consolation.

La vie ici-bas, peut s'éteindre, puis disparaître, mais l'amour que nous portons tous dans nos cœurs pour toi, lui ne disparaîtra jamais. Maintenant tu es certes absente de corps, mais tu restes présente en nos esprits et bien vivant avec notre Dieu.

Nous ne voulons pas pleurer mais juste nous rappeler combien les moments que nous avons passés avec toi ont été profonds et magnifiques. Pour atténuer le vide de ton absence, nous nous accrochons à ces merveilleux souvenirs de ton passage parmi nous. Ils resteront gravés dans nos cœurs comme des exemples d'amour et de générosité qui nous poussent à te ressembler.

Merci notre très chère Kerlene pour le bonheur et l'amour que tu as partagé avec mon frère et ses enfants, y compris ta famille, durant toutes ces belles années.

Chimène Alcinor et Arcange présentent à toute ta famille leurs plus profondes condoléances
