

Kesley Desinor

September 16, 1990 - June 19, 2024

Kesley Desinor was born to the parentage of Abner Desinor and Elmita Desinor on September 16, 1990 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. That Sunday would be the precious day that his parents had their last child. Kesley loved his family and was a joy to be around from an early age.

Kesley was educated in the Broward County School System and graduated from Deerfield Beach High School, class of 2009. After high school, he received an Associate of Arts degree from Florida Atlantic University. As time progressed, he grew into an entrepreneur and learned to be his own boss. Kesley's entrepreneurship included running his own trucking company.

Life was a joy and Kesley had plenty to be happy about. He was also a loving father. In 2021, he and his high school sweetheart, Clare, welcomed a handsome little boy named Carter Joseph Desinor. He loved his son beyond what anyone could imagine. His son loved his father and would love being able to spend quality time with his dad. He also adored his nieces, Mariah and Kayleigh.

Kesley had an intense love of sports. His favorites included teams like the Los Angeles Lakers to the Miami Dolphins and Green Bay Packers. He had a passion for sports and was even a sports gamer.

Kesley transitioned to his final rest unexpectedly on June 19, 2024. He leaves behind his three-year-old son Carter Joseph Desinor, his parents Abner Desinor & Elmita Desinor, and brothers Kesnel and Ronel. He was loved by his aunts, Veronique, Idaliase (deceased), Yolande, Algalite, and Adonia (deceased) as well as his uncles, Claude, George, Paulemon (deceased), and Tercillion (deceased). He will truly be missed by a host of cousins, friends, and extended family.

“ I just saw you in April of this year (2024)! Prior to that, I remember you took me and Itane to the mall to get something to wear and shop for grandma's funeral. Any other time, we were partying at somebody's event acting a fool. However, every moment spent is always cherished. You will be truly missed. 🙏🍷🙏💔
