

Kevin Cledanord

January 14, 1990 - August 21, 2016

Obituary

Kevin Cledanord was born on January 14, 1990 to Zabella St. Fleur and Merinel Cledanord. Kevin was educated in the Palm Beach County School system. He graduated from Atlantic Community High School in 2008 and moved to Orlando, Florida. Kevin moved back to Delray Beach, Florida in 2015.

Kevin was a fun and loving individual. He is mostly known for his jokes and making people laugh. He loved looking nice and carrying himself in a presentable manner. Anyone who met Kevin would fall in love with him immediately because of his temperament and smile. He loved to experience life and would often get dressed up to go out.

Kevin lived 26 years and loved the Lord. He would sleep with his bible next to his bed. In his final days he would confide in his friends about how he was so happy to be striving to be a better man. He worked two jobs and was planning on owning his own home in the near future. Kevin touched so many lives and will be forever missed by all who knew him. He leaves behind to cherish his memories; Parents: Zabella and Merinel; Siblings: Wimpy, Diempe (Lamercie) , Wilclise (Gardy), Frida (Eddie) and Wightgimps (Danielle); Nieces: Stacy, Ashley, Cory and Faith; Nephew: Ovenson; Girlfriend: Yasmine Valle and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends.

“ I wake up this morning to the fact that it has been 7 days since you left us. I remember getting that phone call and automatically wanting to go to your house and be with your mom. When I called Daniel in disbelief, his voice confirmed my fear. These next few days are gonna be tougher than the last 7, but know that with prayer, we will get through this. No one takes care of family like family and our family is standing strong behind your mom and siblings! As fresh as you were, I know God has bigger plans for you. Your mom has sooo much LOVE behind her, I know you are in heaven smiling as you see the support she's getting in your absence. I pray you give each of us strength as we go into this week and lay you to rest the way you deserve! I love you lil cuz!

“ Remember when we were kids couldn't wait for the weekends to come cause the first place I would be is my cousins house Saturday morning me kev wags and the boys would be in the back yard playing ball, racing ,playing video games anything we can do to prove we were better than the other no matter how competitive we were you would always make sure everyone around you was straight no one ever had to ask for a thing around you cause you had use even though you were the youngest of us you always played big brother, you had that kind of heart that hate seeing someone down, we grew up and kind of drifted apart but that was my fault I was caught up in my own world but I never forgot you and the fam you were always in my heart and mind,from time I would hear how well you were doing in Orlando and I was so proud that you were becoming your own man. When you finally moved back down I always want all of us to go out and catch up but it always seems like I wasn't able and that's on me, and I know when my time comes and they ask me what I regret the most in my life not spending time with you when I had the opportunity will be my biggest. I'm sorry kev I'll never forget you r.i.p my brother

Chesnet Joseph - August 25, 2016 at 04:27 PM

Well said, Chestner, you are not alone on this, we all have that in common, we can't go back, but we sure can change that

“ Kevin I've been known you since elementary school. My house was always to hang out spot for you guys. You was that annoying brother that I never have but will also always crack jokes and thought you was funny. May your soul rest in peace and I will forever remember you and keep you and your family in my prayers

“ It feels so unreal. To go to your house and you not be there, just don't even make sense. Best feeling was seeing you with your mom and sis at my wedding! You know I wasn't gonna let you slide about wearing that scarf. But you told me it was your swag, knowing you, I knew it was the truth. I was so happy to see you back home because I stayed asking your mom for you every time I saw her. Growing up, when we would go over to your house, we knew to expect Kevin to "Rank" cause you were so goofy. To go in your room and you not be there.....I still can't believe it. Even tho your in heaven, know that our family is holding tightly together and has your moms back! I won't say good-bye, but I will say "See you lada". I know you will have the hookup in paradise when we meet again. Love you lil cuz! 🙏😭💔

“ Don't know where to start, knowing Kevin since middle school a person that would make you laugh not even saying a word. Entering high school Kevin was no longer called Kevin, better known as KC aka K.Clean always rocking the fresh Jordan's with a big smile. KC starting every sentence with "sooooo...after that came a joke. It was a pleasure knowing and growing up with KC. "Class of 08"

“ I remember the MANY sashes we had in Orlando. I remember being so annoyed when you would say my whole name. I was always DOPHEE HONORAT to you. I remember you always being the fly guy. You were always the pretty boy. I remember you always wanna to live life, party, & look fresh. I know that you will be truly missed. My condolences to the family & 2nd ave boys during this difficult time. Death is always hard but unexpected death is the rest. R.I.P. Kev

“ Kevin. I am at true disbelief that I am writing this. Though it has been long since I've seen you. This news touched me deep. I remember growing up with you, and going to elementary school with you. You always made me laugh and also made fun of me. I never took it to heart because you were always a jokester. lol. You will be missed Kevin. Gone too soon, gone too soon. With love and peace. R.I.P my friend.

“ Kevin, I'm in complete disbelief that you're no longer with us.. It's been long since I've seen you, I definetly remember growing up with you and going to Pine Grove with you. You were always my friend, but always cracked jokes on me and made fun of me. Lol. Never took anything to heart because I knew that you were always a jokester and a kidder. I am at a complete lost for words and I feel that this is surreal. I feel like though it's been more than plus years since I've seen you. This news touches me deep to know that you are no longer here. You will be missed. Gone too soon. Kevin. Too soon. With love and peace. Rip my friend.

“ Kevin was the kid that lived a couple houses away from me and I remember he was on his skate board and he was this annoying kid but funny at the same time but known him since I real young on 2nd Ave he was the first kid that gave me my first fire cracker.I saw a kid with a lot of potential.Then I moved to Orlando and he moved to Orlando and I saw how he grew up and matured and how cool he became. When I found out what happened it hit me I could not believe it. R.I.P Kev your in a better place now.

“ Wow. Seeing your name on a wall in a funeral homes obituary section just doesn't seem right Kevin. It just doesn't. You were always such a nice person. Every time I saw you it was that bright smile followed by a hi. I grew up around all y'all boys man. This was not the news anyone wanted to be receiving for you. This wasn't supposed to end like this. You're gone too soon man. I have to remember God makes no mistakes and he's the author and finisher of our lives. It hurts to know you're gone, but I believe you're resting on and smiling down. Sleep on old friend sleep on.

“ From the days of my siblings and I going to Delray and having you and Waggs brag about having video game consoles to seeing you at my older sisters wedding last year. The many years in between were filled with laughs and pleasant memories. You were a silliest in only the best way and that is what everyone will miss the most! In your words as a kid "I love you baby!" Sleep on cuz.

“ Kevin , Although I didn't know you personally, I know quite a few of your family members. They are very nice and kind people, so I'm sure that was your personality as well. To the family, we have to look to God and know that He will see you through this. Keep his love and memories in your heart and soul. May God be with you and his love ,grace and mercy, bring you peace and comfort. S.I. P. Kevin.
