“ Met Lance in Illinois on a gig he joined to fill in for a drummer. Then in FLorida at our house there. He came to visit, had a nice time, wonderful person. His kindness shone through all his conversations. We were to meet up but COVID and illness on our part got in the way. Will miss you friend! Fly high!

“ My Sweet and sea Lance , we last spoke on May 23rd , I never thought it would be the last time we appel to each other . We had such great plans for the summer !
You were the REAL thing ! Genuine, loving caring human being .
Champagne will never taste the same without you .
Love always ,
Louise

“ Lance, I will remember you for all the friends and music and deep talks we experienced together. You loved life and loved to dance. Your "thank-yous" were heard and your "compliments" to anyone you met or reunited were sweet. I remember when we talked about Tom, I felt your deep pain. And then you asked me to keep a promise to share this song when "your time came", and now "the time has come". I will keep Teddy close to me and will remember all the fun times. With a heavy heart sadden of you leaving us too soon. "This Songs For You" by Leo Russell, your wish. <https://youtu.be/37dw2r45Xzg>

You are among some really famous musicians and I know you'll be jamming your heart out. That's what made you happy. Fly Lance, fly. Forever love.

My deepest condolences to Al, Caroline, family, and friends.
