OBITUARY

A Life of Love

Leo Dunstard Dangleben was born on April 22, 1954 on the beautiful Island of Dominica in the Caribbean, to the late Francis Dangleben and Augusta Burke. He was educated in the school system of Soufriere, Dominica. He later took up an interest in the medical field and worked in Psychiatric Nursing. He met Rose Marie Cox of Pompano Beach, Florida in 1977 in Dorchester, Massachusetts. They were married the following year April 18, 1978. Three beautiful children were born to this union.

Leo worked for H.P. Hood Milk Company during his residence in Massachusetts. On his first visit to Florida he fell in love with the sunshine state. In 1985, we moved and remained in south Florida. He had a passion for Electrical wiring from a young age. He became a Licensed Electrician and worked in the field for over 30 years.

Tadd, (which he is fondly called by those who knew him well) often spoke about the Island's natural beauty and resources. He loved spearfishing and playing football "soccer".

While attending services at the Dorchester Church of Christ under the ministry of Brother John R. Davis Sr., Leo gave his life to Christ in 1977. This would be his greatest accomplishment in life. He brought friends and family to Christ and they remained faithful. He made sure our three children and his first child Denise Karen Dangleben were baptized into Christ at an early age. They were very dutifully servants in the youth programs at church. What a joy it is to have your family worshiping God in Spirit and Truth. I thank God for allowing me to have loved and known such a wonderful person. Leo was a good man who took great pride in fatherhood. Everyone loved him dearly.

In loving memory of Leo Dunstard Dangleben April 22, 1954 - August 27, 2021. Leo was a beloved son, brother, husband, father, uncle, grandfather, great grandfather and friend. Family and friends are invited to attend memorial services honoring his life at: L.C. Poitier Funeral Home, 317 N.W. 6th Street, Pompano Beach, Florida 33060.
