“ Lillie Pearl Gary was my great aunt. I got the chance to visit her a couple years ago in Florida. The time before that I was a teenager when she came down to Ohio and I have pictures of her too. I looked at them recently and smiled because she was beautiful both inside and out. Love you and you will truly be missed!! Sending my sympathy out to all the other loved ones.

“ Living in Ohio, I only saw my Great Aunt Lillie a few times as a kid when she and cousin Lynn would come up to visit my grandmother Beatrice. I was able to see her once again as an adult in November of 2019. Each time I saw her, it was her smile that left a lasting impression. My condolences to all affected by her loss.
