“ One year ago today (August 25, 2016) a piece of my heart was shattered when my dad transitioned from cruel world. God knew after 85 years on earth my dad's work was finished.

God truly blessed me with the greatest father in the world. I truly miss my dad's meek and humble presences; peaceful and quiet spirit and his voice asking me to fix him something to eat. He was a man of few words and showed much love for me, my husband and his grandsons. We truly, truly missed my dad. I am so grateful God blessed me and my siblings to have our father all our life - from childhood through adulthood.

“ To Mrs. Branch, Melinda and the entire Branch family, I was so sorry to learn of the passing of Mr. Branch. I did not know him well but it is written that, "Ye shall know a tree by the fruit it bears". Mr. Branch has some strong and productive fruit as living examples of his strength and goodness. As long as his fruit continues to produce, Mr. Branch will never be far away. Remember when one is absent from the body, they are present with the Lord. I will keep all of the "Branches" in my thoughts and prayers.
