“ Mr. Linzell was everything! Kind, compassionate, giving, I could go on and on. Always had a smile on his face through it all. You hardly would not see Mr. Linzell without Mrs. Laura, the love they exuded was REAL!! Mr. Linzell, may you sleep in Peace & know that Mrs. Laura is in the best of hands until you both meet again! With our sincerest love, Sway & Saige

“ I was at work when I got the news of my Uncle Linzell’s passing... He has always been a man of virtue, loyalty and full of wisdom. I will always remember him for the many lessons he has taught me about life, how to be a strong black man and most importantly how to love. -Here is my message to the family... Lift your head to the hills which covers your strength. Don’t be saddened by his absence but rejoice that he is in a better place. A place where there is no pain, no suffering and no fear of what tomorrow will bring. For Jesus Christ our beloved Lord and Savior is our comforter. To my favor cousin Billy... “You’re the man of the house and of family.” Continue to look after Auntie Gee. Your father was always proud of you. With Great Love During Your Time Of Loss,

-Andre T. Hannan...
