

Lokesley Myrthil

November 9, 2004 - December 31, 2024

Lokesley Myrthil was born on November 9, 2004, to the parentage of Checknel Religieux and Martine Myrthil Normilus. Lokesley graduated from High School in 2024 and loved to learn new things. He was very talented from a young age and would spend hours writing songs and posting videos on his YouTube channel. He would work tirelessly to put music out that would help push him to stardom. He also had a love for physical fitness and boxing. There are occasions when he would box with his friends and he even boxed with his mom to show her the skills he learned.

Lokesley always tried to fix the problem after an argument. He always motivated his family to work on their dreams. Lokesley is a hardworking man, he never gave up, he always tries to better himself. He was very caring about his family even though he doesn't show it. His favorite habit is physical fitness and always have some special conversations with his mom who was his best friend.

Lokesley was also a family man who was most proud of his job as a big brother to his younger brother Jayden. He always wanted to be a role model and show his brother the right way to carry yourself in the world. Lokesley was always protective to his little brother. He was very consistent of keeping His little brother safe. He didn't write music with explicit content so that his brother wouldn't a bad example to follow.

Lokesley was selfless until the day God called him home. He leaves behind so many wonderful memories and loved ones to cherish them. Including his loving family; mother: Martine; stepfather: Jacobson; brother: Jayden; and a host of other relatives and friends
