“ To my sisters and brothers from another mother , It started as kids in Pearl City , then as time moved on our families moved all to pompano growing closer. Debra , Sherrie, Leon , Todd , Trea, Simone, As you all were taught in times like these we need a Savior , in times like these we need a friend . Look to Jesus he will be all that an more for you. Each of you are in my prayers and let memories of Mack bless you for eternity . God will take care of you. Your Brother, Ron

“ I will miss that big smile whenever you came around. You would always make the family laugh. You was a jack of a lot of trades but the largest trade was that you would keep people laughing. We will really miss you. When you walk through the gate of heaven everyone in heaven will be laughing.
